

Ten Ways to “GREEN” Your Organization

- 1. Regularly learn something new about those with whom you work.
- 2. Create and participate in more socialization opportunities.
- 3. Link current tasks to goals – “Why are we doing this?”
- 4. Concentrate on improving the structure (methods and techniques) of projects.
- 5. Increase the use of graphics to illustrate “connections” in dialog.
- 6. Increase the “rapport development” ratio during interpersonal contacts.
- 7. Introduce people to each other that have common interests from your perspective.
- 8. Use a “facilitator” or “recorder” at regular meetings.
- 9. Engage an organizational historian to help people understand perspective.
- 10. Engage in new employee orientations and mentoring/sponsoring activities.
